KASICH GRATEFUL FOR BEING NAMED GOVERNOR OF THE YEAR BY NATIONAL MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS SOCIETY

COLUMBUS – Gov. John R. Kasich today issued the following statement in response to being named the National Multiple Sclerosis Society’s 2013 Governor of the Year:

“We have a moral obligation to reach out and help our fellow Ohioans who need a hand and I think that Ohio is doing that with purpose, with thoughtfulness and with a commitment to being good stewards of taxpayers’ money. I’m honored that the National MS Society is recognizing the work that Ohio’s doing and I hope it leads to more states following our lead,” said Kasich.
