KASICH ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT TO THE HAMILTON COUNTY COMMON PLEAS COURT

COLUMBUS – Today Governor John R. Kasich announced the appointment of Amy L. Searcy of Harrison (Hamilton Co.) to serve as a judge on the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, Domestic Relations Division. Searcy will assume office on June 2, 2014, and must run in November 2014 to retain the seat for the full term commencing July 1, 2015. Searcy is replacing Judge Elizabeth B. Mattingly, who resigned.

Searcy received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Xavier University in 1985, and received her certification to teach high school social studies from the College of Mount Saint Joseph in 1999. Searcy earned her juris doctorate from Salmon P. Chase College of Law in 1990. Searcy has worked as a Hamilton County Public Defender and a Magistrate for the Hamilton County Municipal Court. Searcy served as the Deputy Director for the Hamilton County Board of Elections from 2009 until 2012 until she became the Director for the Hamilton County Board of Elections.

Searcy serves on the Talbert House Board of Trustees, the Cincinnati Park Board Advisory Council, and is a Saylor Park Community Leader.
