KASICH SIGNS SIX BILLS INTO LAW

COLUMBUS—Today Gov. John R. Kasich signed the following pieces of legislation into law:

Sub. HB 1 (Derickson, Romanchuk) requires a local workforce investment area to use OhioMeansJobs as its job placement system, renames county one-stop systems, and makes other changes to Ohio's Workforce Development Law.

HB 77 (Dovilla, Celebrezze) designates October as "Manufacturing Month."

Am. SB 94 (Balderson) designates the first week of October as "Ohio Forest Products Awareness Week."

Sub. SB 4 (Manning, Oelsleger) requires hospitals and freestanding birthing centers to conduct a screening on each newborn (unless a parent objects on religious grounds) for the purpose of detecting critical congenital heart defects.

HB 141 (Damschroder) abolishes the Fostoria Municipal Court and the Tiffin Municipal Court effective January 1, 2014, and consolidates both courts and their territorial jurisdictions within the newly established Tiffin-Fostoria Municipal Court.

HB 149 (Anielski) designates September 10 as "Ohio Suicide Prevention Day."
