KASICH AND TAYLOR ISSUE RESOLUTION IN HONOR OF THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

COLUMBUS – Today Governor John R. Kasich and Lieutenant Governor Mary Taylor issued a resolution recognizing the 50th anniversary of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

“It is incumbent upon all Americans to reflect on the struggles of our past, address the challenges of the present and embrace the potential of our future,” Kasich and Taylor shared, asking all Ohioans to “join us in the recognition of this anniversary - an important reminder to stand against evil and hatred wherever they may exist.”
