KASICH AND TAYLOR ISSUE PATRIOT DAY RESOLUTION, ORDER PUBLIC FLAGS FLOWN AT HALF-STAFF

COLUMBUS – Today Governor John R. Kasich ordered that all flags be flown at half-staff from sunrise until sunset on Patriot Day, Thursday, September 11, 2014, in honor of the lives lost in the terrorist attacks that occurred on September 11, 2001. In addition, he asked that all Ohioans observe a moment of silence beginning at 8:46 a.m. EDT.

Excerpts from the Patriot Day resolution issued by Kasich and Lt. Governor Mary Taylor.

“Thirteen years ago this month, our nation was struck by terrorist attacks that claimed the lives of approximately 3,000 innocent men, women and children. We urge all Ohioans to observe Patriot Day and the National Day of Service and Remembrance with appropriate ceremonies, activities and remembrance services to honor the victims of the attacks on September 11th as well as pay tribute to the brave men and women of our armed forces and first responders who stand ready to pay the ultimate sacrifice to preserve the freedoms we cherish most.”
