OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Columbus

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the world has been transformed by technology making modern life more efficient, accessible, richer, and faster; and

WHEREAS, most industries and practices have embraced technology and used it to improve the way they do things; and

WHEREAS, when done correctly, the infusion of digital learning and the effective use of technology in schools can help personalize and improve the learning of every child; and

WHEREAS, digital learning and the use of technology has the ability to assist every teacher to do their job more effectively—by providing real time data to track individual student progress and giving them more time to spend with each student; and

WHEREAS, more schools and teachers are exploring the use of high-quality digital learning and the effective use of technology to improve student learning; and

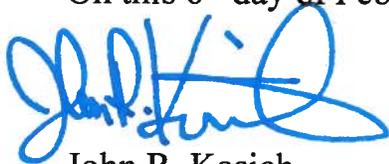

WHEREAS, it is important that any new change in learning methods and infusion of technology in schools be done so in a high-quality manner that best helps every student and ensures public funding is spent appropriately.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John R. Kasich, Governor of the State of Ohio, do hereby recognize February 6, 2013 as throughout Ohio and encourage teachers, students, schools, parents, policymakers, and the public to participate in Digital Learning Day activities and use to as a day of exploration to learn about new types of innovation in the classroom.

DIGITAL LEARNING DAY

On this 6th day of February, 2013;

John R. Kasich
Governor
