OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Columbus

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the world has been transformed by technology making modern life more efficient, accessible, richer, and faster; and

WHEREAS, the modern world demands that the United States have a highly trained workforce in order to compete in the global economy; and

WHEREAS, most industries and practices have embraced technology and have used it to improve the way they do things; and

WHEREAS, when done correctly, the infusion of digital learning and the effective use of technology in schools can help personalize and improve the learning of every child; and

WHEREAS, digital learning and the effective use of technology can assist every teacher to do their job more effectively by providing real time data to track individual student progress, create improved and efficient learning processes that gives teachers more time to spend with each student, and eliminate bureaucratic administrative burdens that take time away from teaching; and

WHEREAS, more schools and teachers are exploring the use of high-quality digital learning and the effective use of technology to improve student learning; and

WHEREAS, it is important that any new change in learning methods and infusion of technology in schools be done so in a high-quality manner that best helps every student and ensures public funding is being spent appropriately; and

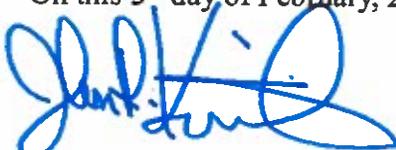

WHEREAS, the third annual Digital Learning Day will occur on February 5, 2014, in order to educate teachers, students, schools, parents, policymakers, and the public on ways to successfully integrate high-quality digital learning and the effective use of technology to help improve the learning of every student.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John R. Kasich, Governor of the State of Ohio, do hereby recognize February 5, 2014 as encourage teachers, students, schools, parents, policymakers, and the public to participate in Digital Learning Day activities and use it as a day of exploration to learn about new types of innovation in the classroom and to promote promising practices in digital learning already taking place in many classrooms in Ohio and around the nation.

On this 5th day of February, 2014;

John R. Kasich
Governor
