RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the United States of America, the guardian of our liberties, embodies the principles of limited government in a Republic dedicated to rule by law; and

WHEREAS, it is of the greatest importance that all citizens fully understand the provisions and principles contained in the Constitution in order to effectively support, preserve and defend it against all enemies; and

WHEREAS, the 224th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution provides a historic opportunity for all Americans to remember the achievements of the Framers of the Constitution and the rights, privileges and responsibilities they afforded us in this unique document; and

WHEREAS, the independence guaranteed to the American citizens should be celebrated during Constitution Day on September 17th, as designated by proclamation of the President of the United States of America in accordance with Public Law 915.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John R. Kasich, Governor of the State of Ohio, do hereby designate September 17, 2011, throughout Ohio and encourage citizens to reaffirm the ideals the Framers of the Constitution had in 1787 by vigilantly protecting the freedoms guaranteed to us through this guardian of our liberties.

CONSTITUTION DAY

On this 17TH day of September, 2011;

John R. Kasich
Governor
